

Please do not dilute Wisconsin's very effective no-call list by substituting a federal statute more favorable to business. Wisconsin's list has made our dinner hour peaceful once again, and we have already registered cell phones in anticipation of their being included as well.